

Mr. Ghulam Abbas

He is graduated from Shah Abdul Latif University, Khairpur, with Master of Philosophy (MPhil) degree in Botany. He also holds Masters in Education (MEd) and Diploma certification in Information Technology (DIT). He is currently working with PMNH/PSF as Research Associate in Botanical Sciences Division and responsible for the research activities, Herbarium activities (Algae). He has previously worked as Lecturer in Botany at The Educators and Career College, Ghotki for six years. He has eagerly participated in many seminars, National and International conferences, symposia and trainings.

He has also published many abstracts in international conferences. His two research articles have submitted in impact factor journals for publication. He has been active member of Soil Science Society of Pakistan.